 of interest policy. On an annual basis all persons subject to the policy, including all officers, directors and key employees are required to make certain disclosures. These include disclosures related to certain personal, financial and organizational relationships that may present a conflict, or the appearance of a conflict of interest, with Bon Secours Warwick Health Foundation. All disclosures go through a three-part review process: (1) disclosures are reviewed first by the corporate responsibility officer (CRO); (2) a governance team comprised of the CEO, board president, board chair, CRO, and the BSHSI CRO participates in a second review of all disclosures during which recommendations are made as to the resolution of any conflicts or potential conflicts. Depending on the facts and circumstances, resolutions may include ongoing disclosure, recusal or removal of the conflict; and (3) all disclosures and recommendations are reviewed by a board committee (audit and compliance committee reviews the disclosures of management and the governance committee reviews the disclosures of the board and board committee members).

Part VI, Section B, Line 14: Document Retention and Destruction Policy

While Bon Secours Health System, Inc. does not have a written organization-wide document retention and destruction policy, individual department policies and practices are in place to ensure that each department of the organization maintains their documentation in compliance with state and federal requirements. In addition, any areas responsible for medical records have department policies in compliance with Medicare and HIPAA requirements. An organization-wide policy is currently in place for fiscal year ending August 31, 2011.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: The compensation committee of the board of Bon Secours Health System, Inc. engages in a comprehensive process for the oversight and management of remuneration for executive employees and disqualified parties of Bon Secours Warwick Health Foundation as well as other officers, key employees and highest paid employees. The compensation committee consists of a group of independent board members and engages an independent external compensation consultant to ensure the reasonableness of compensation paid to executives and disqualified parties. The committee maintains a Board-approved compensation philosophy, reviews pay practices against local, regional and national healthcare organizations and approves all remunerative decisions for this group of individuals. The committee reviews and receives assurances that all levels of pay within the organization are reasonable based on performance and validates incentives are met. These decisions are reported to the BSHSI Board of Directors and documented in the BSHSI compensation committee minutes.
